25X1 7. [] William Hogan, Counsel to the Special Subcommittee on Intelligence, House Armed Services Committee, called to say they were having some discussion of jurisdictional problems between the House Armed Services Committee and the House Government Operations Committee and wondered if we could provide him with background which would be helpful on this point. I called [] who said he had the background material and would discuss it with Hogan.

25X1 8. [] Jim Woolsey, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, called to say Senator Stuart Symington plans a press conference at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow at which he will disclose some of the information developed at this morning's hearing of the full Senate Armed Services Committee. I reviewed with Woolsey the followup questions from that hearing and he said he would examine the record and call me back to clarify the questions raised so that we would be sure our answers are fully responsive.

25X1 9. [] Called Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and filled him in on what had transpired this morning at Senate Armed Services. He said that they would like to get General Walters up before the Nedzi Subcommittee at the first opportunity.

After consulting General Walters, I called Slatinshek back to explain the General would be tied up with the grand jury tomorrow. Slatinshek suggested we set aside Wednesday for the General's appearance. He asked why the points covered by the General had not been covered earlier by the Director. I said at the time the Director appeared the General was out of town and the Director, I was sure, was not familiar with the details the General was able to provide.

25X1 10. [] Met with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and briefed him on the Senate Armed Services Committee hearing of Friday afternoon. Slatinshek told me that they had additional questions concerning the McCord allegations about attempts to involve CIA but the time ran out during the morning before they got to them.
